

Media Policy for the Hoosier Environmental Council

June 2013

Thank you for your interest in speaking with the Hoosier Environmental Council (HEC). Founded in 1983, HEC is the largest, statewide environmental policy organization in Indiana, www.hecweb.org.

To arrange an interview, please contact HEC's media consultant, Marianne Holland at 317-702-4847 or media@hecweb.org or contact the following representatives from HEC's staff based on their area of expertise and focus. (Note: Quotations, on-air appearances and official statements for use in the media must be attributed to the Executive Director or a Policy Director below, unless otherwise authorized by the Executive Director.)

Jesse Kharbanda, Executive Director

Office: 317- 317.685.8800 ext. 103

Mobile: 317-979-3236

Email: jkharbanda@hecweb.org

Areas of expertise:

Energy (renewables, efficiency, nuclear, biomass); economics/jobs; air emissions/carbon; general issues with coal; legislative priorities; green technology; general environmental concerns and questions; faith-based outreach; open burning; recycling.

Tim Maloney, Senior Policy Director & Land Use Policy Director

Office: 317.685.8800 ext. 115

Mobile: 812-369-8677

Email: tmaloney@hecweb.org

Areas of expertise:

Highways, transit, rail; fish and wildlife protection; forestry; land use policy; rule-making processes for Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM); Indiana Department of Natural Resources (DNR), rail; wetlands; coal mining and coal ash.

Kim Ferraro, Water and Agricultural Policy Director

Office: 219-464-0104

Mobile: 773-392-2955

Email: kferraro@hecweb.org

Areas of expertise:

Confined animal feeding operations (CAFOs) and confined feeding operations (CFOs); environmental justice; landfills; legal advocacy, stormwater management, sustainable agriculture, water policy; water pollution; RCRA and CERCLA.